

DAVID R. AITON, E.I.T.
Engineering Technician

EXPERIENCE

02/12 – Present            Engineering Technician, White Mountain Survey and Engineering, Ossipee, NH
6/04 – 02/12            Engineering Technician, White Mountain Survey Co., Inc., Ossipee, NH

Responsibilities include designing: residential and commercial sewage disposal designs; private and municipal sewer design; private water system design; private and municipal road design; private and commercial site development including layout, parking and drainage. All projects include coordination with client and applicable design professionals, state and municipal officials and development of appropriate plans, applications and support materials (February 2012 corporation name was changed).

5/00 – 1/02            Seasonal Engineering Intern, Lydall Active Thermal Solutions, Ossipee, NH

Responsibilities included redesign flow switch with outside vendors in order to minimize cost, coordinated development of internal silk-screen design systems and required CAD infrastructure, designed parts and modifications and drafted existing hand-drawn plans into CAD/PDF system.

EDUCATION

2002                    B.S. Mechanical Engineering, cum laude
University of New Hampshire, Durham, NH

LICENSES/REGISTRATIONS

2002                    #3895 Engineer in Training (E.I.T.), New Hampshire
2006                    #1682 Designer of Subsurface Disposal Systems, New Hampshire